

To 600 BCE AP World History Project

The story of Ug and his decedents

Format: Children's story book that tells the story of a single extended family's experiences over the first 120,000 years of human existence in a historically plausible narrative.

Due Date: 9/10/12

Purpose: to demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of the chronology and relationship of the events of human history leading up to the year 600 BCE

Requirements:

1) Your family must participate in each of the six phases of human development listed below; you must explain how they progress from one phase to the next in a historically plausible way that includes an explanation of causation

1. Africa
2. migration
3. domesticate plants and animals
4. village life
5. city-states
6. empire

2) Your family must witness or participate in each item listed below in a historically accurate time, location, and plausible way. Students must demonstrate a clear understanding of the significance of each item as it relates to this class (see the key concepts and material to master).
